

Discrimination

Discrimination based on the gender identity of a person is forbidden by law in Austria. Who a person loves is a private matter and therefore the person must not be treated worse.

Marriage

In Austria same sex couples can get married legally.

SEXUAL DIVERSITY

gender identity - what's that?

How do I see myself?

How do I define myself?

How do I describe myself?

Maybe you think about similar questions:

Are you not sure whom you feel sexually attracted to?

Are you afraid of having a coming out?

How will your parents and friends react?

You don't feel comfortable with the sex which was assigned to you at birth?

You think about undertaking gender reassignment surgery?

Sexual orientation - what's that?

To whom do I feel sexually attracted to?

Who arouses sexual desire in me?

Every human has the ability to fall in love with people of the same sex.

In Austria it is forbidden to discriminate people because of their sexual orientation.
